J. HERBERT SMITH HONORED

J. Herbert Smith of the Tropico Mercantile company, who for a number of years has been a very active member of the Los Angeles Grocery company, has just recently been elected secretary of the company.

The Los Angeles Grocery company is an organization comprising a membership of fifty or more successful retail grocers who are banded together in such a way that it is possible for the company of which they are members to buy merchandise in large quantities and by so doing get a price even below the wholesale price, and thus it is found that firms having a membership in the Los Angeles Grocery company can give their patrons the advantage of low prices.

The fact that Mr. Smith has been chosen secretary of this strong company is sufficient evidence of his recognized ability by his fellow members.

TENNIS TOURNAMENT

So great is the interest taken in tennis by local players since the recent tournament that a demand is now being made for a mixed doubles tournament. Many young ladies, it is known are keeping up their practice on private courts and there should be no difficulty in arranging matches. In order to stimulate interest in this particular form of the game prizes are being offered for such an event. Players who wish to enter will please give their names to Mr. Julius Lehman, playground superintendent, before Tuesday noon, August 10. The schedule will be made out on that date.

TEXTBOOKS AND STUDY

HIGH SCHOOL BOARDS MUST ADOPT BOOKS FOR A PERIOD OF FOUR YEARS

It has been desired to make the present law relating to the adoption of high school text books effective. This law was enacted against the frequent changes in text books. It provides that local high school boards shall adopt books for a period of four years from a list prescribed by the state Board of Education.

In 1913 the office of commissioner of Secondary schools was created by law. This commissioner was charged among other duties with that of enforcing the law. On investigation he found that most high school boards, especially in the smaller cities and towns had made no adoptions. He found a few schools in which practically all of the text books were changed in one year, thus involving the parents and pupils in unnecessary expense. Out of more than 250 high school districts he found only five districts that had entered into contracts with book publishers as required by law.

This bill eliminates the contract feature, first because it was not efficient; and second, because the attorney general gave it as his opinion that the high school board could not contract with a publisher for the purchase of a book by a pupil. Since the contract feature has failed, this bill proposes that the high school boards shall report directly to the state board of education. If changes are made contrary to law, it is provided that the state high school fund shall be withheld until the law is obeyed.

A second feature is that relating to vocational and commercial schools. The Supreme court has held that under the present law no high school can share in state funds unless it maintains a course leading to the university. This bill recognizes that commercial and vocational schools that prepare for life, shall be allowed to share in state aid.

The third provision relates to the approval of high school courses of study by the state board of education. This was not advocated by the state board; it was inserted in the original draft of the bill by request of the member of the legislature. This bill will give the state board an opportunity to advise local boards against experiments that have failed elsewhere. It will also give the state board the right to insist upon the teaching of certain subjects, such as American history and civics. It does not mean interference with local affairs; it should mean assistance in solving local problems economically. If the state board refuses to approve the local community has its recourse. It may establish its course of study; it loses only its state high school fund which amounts to $15 per pupil.

DOROTHY HOBBS GOES TO BERKELEY—KENSINGTON CLUB ENTERTAINED

Miss Dorothy Hobbs, who leaves for Berkeley university next Thursday, is the recipient of many social attentions upon the eve of her departure. Miss Pauline Hamilton was the hostess at a pretty handkerchief shower Wednesday evening complimentary to Miss Hobbs. The guests who were entertained by Miss Hamilton at her home Wednesday afternoon were also dinner guests with the honoree in the evening. The color scheme for this delightful affair was pink and blue. A large basket, embellished in these dainty colors, contained the many pretty handkerchiefs, which later were "showered" upon Miss Hobbs. The place cards were dainty conceits—Dutch girls in pink and blue—the artistic work of Miss Hamilton. Following dinner, Miss Hamilton entertained Miss Hobbs and guests—Miss Esther Sinclair, Miss Alice McCoy, Miss Amy Miller, Miss Esther Schremp, Miss Kathleen Dodge, Miss Ernestine Lyons and Miss Evangeline Hunchberger—at the Palace Grand, the evening's entertainment concluding with a slumber party at the home of Miss Hamilton.

Interesting and charming in every detail was the pleasant afternoon enjoyed by the Kensington club at the home of Mrs. George Friedgen on West Park avenue Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Friedgen was assisted in entertaining the fifty or more guests by Mrs. William Hartwig, Mrs. Jas. R. Maxwell, Mrs. Robert Sanders and Mrs. Joseph V. Griffin. Several out-of-town guests enjoyed the hospitality extended by these gracious hostesses.

Mrs. P. O. Lucas and children of 201 South Brand boulevard are spending a most delightful summer vacation visiting Mrs. Lucas' parents in London, Ky. Dr. Lucas left a few days since for Kentucky, where he will join Mrs. Lucas and children for a few weeks' visit. Enroute home Dr. and Mrs. Lucas and children will visit in Missouri and then spend some time in San Francisco visiting the Panama-Pacific exposition.

Mrs. John A. Kirkham of Palmer avenue leaves for Kansas today, where she will remain for several months. Mr. and Mrs. Kirkham own a very large ranch in southeastern Kansas and make frequent trips to the Sunflower state. Recently they have purchased extensive ranch property in Utah.

Miss Pauline Hamilton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Hamilton of West Tenth street, will leave the latter part of September for Mills college, which institution she will enter to pursue her studies for the coming year.

Mrs. Burt Burlingham and daughter, Miss Daphne Burlingham of Rose Villa, are enjoying a few days' visit in Pasadena as the guests of Mrs. Robert Tiffany.

Miss Esther Schremp has returned from a two weeks' visit in San Francisco, where she visited relatives while "doing" the exposition.

LIFE CAREER STUDY

MOVEMENT TO BRING PUBLIC SCHOOLS AND LIFE MORE CLOSELY TOGETHER

That an effort will be made more definitely than has hitherto been done to bring the school and life more closely together is the opinion of Mr. Richardson D. White, principal of the Intermediate school. In speaking to a representative of the Glendale Evening News last Tuesday evening, Mr. White said:

"I am aware that the Polytechnic high school of Los Angeles made an important innovation last year in starting a ten weeks' part time school in salesmanship. The students spend the mornings in the school and are placed in positions in the afternoons and on Saturdays. The students get about $6 a week while learning. The students learn only those things that they will be able to apply immediately.

"The subjects taught are textiles, store mathematics, store penmanship, business English, store system and salesmanship. The Polytechnic also established a down-town school in which inefficient store help were instructed in a knowledge of salesmanship.

"I believe that is a great advance over old methods. Of course in Glendale we have not facilities for such work. Still we did attempt to do something in this line and I hope to see it extended ere long. About a year ago, in conjunction with the Parent-Teacher association, the Third street (Intermediate) school instituted a series of instructive lectures on vital subjects connected with life work.

"A class of more than sixty boys was got together and able expounders of such subjects as engineering considered from the standpoint of its desirability as a life employment were given. We also had practical lectures on music and agriculture. Those lectures were very popular. I feel certain that the movement in the Polytechnic of Los Angeles to have a regular vocational course with a paid teacher is an excellent thing. It is a good thing to make the pupils more capable of judging their own ability. It is a valuable training, which makes the pupils acquainted with the conditions that prevail in the world of work and it should profit them much to obtain an idea of the elements that contribute to success in life.

"If, in addition to all that a course can be instituted that will train the pupils in such manner as to make them able to fit into the vocations toward which they feel themselves impelled, I believe much good would result. I know that the Parent-Teacher association is in line with this work and has been giving it most careful thought; so that we are likely to get results in that direction."

L. L. STANCLIFF FUNERAL

LeRoy L. Stancliff, a former resident of both Burbank and Sunland, died in Phoenix, Arizona, August 2. The funeral will be held from the Pulliam Undertaking parlors, Glendale, Thursday afternoon at 2.30. Interment will be in Grand View cemetery. Mr. Stancliff was the father of Mrs. Alfred Adams of Sunland. A son and other relatives reside in Burbank.

TRANSFER MAN INJURED

Mr. J. S. Stockdale, 422½ S. Louise street who handles an active transfer business was seriously injured while moving a piano at Venice, yesterday. While partly supporting the weight of the piano Mr. Stockdale slipped and broke both bones of his left leg below the knee. Mr. Stockdale who was recently married is resting easily in his home. It will probably be two months before he is well. He is being attended by Dr. Boyer.

Justice does not work perfectly yet. Generally the careless driver escapes and his passengers get the bumps.

CONVICT OF THE CZAR

LIEUT. SWARTZKOPENSKY IS TO TELL OF LIFE IN PRISON OF SIBERIA

Those who attend the lecture in the auditorium of the Third street school when Lieut. Swartzkopensky, formerly an officer in the Preobajensky regiment, will tell of convict life in Siberia, will have a rare treat. The lieutenant was condemned among many others for his vigorous protest against the shooting down of innocent men, women and children in Petrograd and was sentenced to Siberia.

Starting out in a long train of about 40,000 "convicts," from Tumen, in the Volga district, the condemned were marched, on a long daily stretch, with a rest at noon. The men had chains riveted on them. Those chains weighed nine and a half pounds. On the march, beginning at 6 a. m. and lasting till the noon rest, no water was allowed the prisoners. At noon a little soup and bread constituted the meal. After a brief rest the march would be resumed, lasting till 6 p. m. Many thousands unable to stand the unceasing misery and hardships of the march, died by the way. At night men, women and children would be huddled into a common sleeping room full of unspeakable filth.

This horrible march lasted three months. At the end of that time the remnant of the 40,000 reached their destination, the convict settlement of Kara Bay in the Baikal district, not far from Irkutsk. There the convicts were placed in separate cells, six feet by five. They got two meals a day, consisting of vegetable soup and rye bread. Convicts were not allowed to speak to each other, neither were they allowed to sit down all day, except when eating. If any convict got sick his time in the hospital was not counted on his sentence.

After many months of this unendurable life, Lieut. Swartzkopensky in company with eleven men and two women planned escape. The plot was formed during the moments they managed to communicate with each other during church service. Taking to the woods and escaping the guards the fugitives battled along bravely, enduring untold suffering. Before long the two women died and one by one the men succumbed until only five were left.

Subsisting on the way by begging and sometimes taking what they needed for subsistence, the fugitives reached Irkutsk, where they separated. Swartzkopensky managed to work his way to Poland, and thence to the United States.

The lecturer has much to tell that is of absorbing interest. His life in the Preobajensky regiment alone would make interesting reading. He was a crack rifle shot and won many prizes and honors while in the service of the czar.

The lecturer will describe conditions in Siberia, a country nearly as large as the United States, but with a population of only 5,000,000. Populated by ex-convicts, the land does not thrive. The population is under government control and the people thus oppressed are unable to do anything to make the land produce as it should. The children are usually poorly educated or, as in most cases, receive no education at all. Altogether this should prove a most interesting lecture and should attract a large audience.

CONTRACTORS SUBMIT BIDS

Contractors and others having paving work in charge will be interested in the estimates furnished the city of Compton for two and one-half miles of asphalt paving and sanitary sewer in that city on Main street and Compton avenue. PARKER'S PEN POINTS

WRITTEN FOR YOU—PASS THEM ON IF YOU WISH TO THE OTHER FELLOW

The pictures in my paper, for common, I pass by—but one the other morning, caught my admiring eye. And knowing of your good taste in art affairs, so true, I tell about the picture and put it up to you. Three women in the picture beyond the "gushing" stage, but average good looking, my artist's shots engage. I little saw of wrappings or do up of the hair, but merely saw the faces were of the average, fair. This one great charm had caught me and gave supreme delight—the pictures were so charming and not a tooth in sight. Toothless, were they? Nay, nay, my friend, a long way from it—but when posing for their picture, their well formed mouths were shut.

Antedating Susan B. Anthony came Margaret Brent who in 1647 demanded of the Maryland General Assembly the right to cast two votes, one as the executrix of a wealthy estate and one for a sister "who owned as much land as any one member of the Assembly." The Assembly caucused all night, we are told, more from fright than from intention to grant the request. This ancient history ought to help the Maryland of today.

Thirty four men, 24 negroes and 10 whites were lynched in the first 6 months of this year in the United States, an increase of 4 negroes and 9 whites over the same time last year. Georgia lynched 8 of this year's crop. 7 negroes and 1 white man were charged with rape, accusations of theft of a cow, a hog and some meat were sufficient in other cases.

It was at the annual meeting of distillers at Cincinnati where the president declared that "the use of liquor produced more pleasure than it did of unhappiness." In response to this wild and deliberate falsehood statement, Ohio is booked to be the next state to go dry, and the entire world is scurrying to get on the triumphant water wagon.

Gov. Dunne was hurried home by two sad but widely different events. The Eastland calamity filled the state with sadness while a democratic legislation six months in session added appropriations of $40,000,000 to be paid by the people in the next two years.

Yes, it was a little cheeky for Mayor Thompson to load up a train of "whoopla" followers and rush them out to Los Angeles, take the town and also the Alexandria hotel stuff it with former Illinoisans and get himself nominated for the presidency, when California has not a few candidates of her own!

"The pursuit of happiness is guaranteed in the bill of rights and if the use of liquor in a moderate way contributes to the enjoyment of myself and friends, it cannot be abridged." This was seen recently in print, evidently paid for by the liquor "corruption fund," which is able to get into the columns of a cheap line of papers.

Some things very simple seem hard to account for. A sheet of postage stamps manufactured under a democratic administration is as likely to tear through the stamp as through the perforated lines, unless great care is used. It was just so under the first and second reigns of Cleveland.

The committee that was (not) appointed to lengthen the alphabet in order that College and University graduates might have more letters to use as prefixes and suffixes to their names when appearing in print, is slow in reporting, which compels the multiple users to get along with the present limited list. Meantime Rev. William A. Sunday manages to survive with the prefix, "Billy."

The Eastland's hurry to fill Chicago cemeteries by drowning a thousand and inmates of happy homes, largely women and children is easily traced to two sources,—corporations that hold the dollar above the man, and officials mainly ornamental and "inspectors who never inspect."

Again the man is killed by the idiot hunter who "took him for a deer." While there is any room in any asylum, no such idiot should be running loose—much less trusted with a gun. Put him in for life, for manslaughter.

DELIVERING PACIFIC TO JAPAN

As has been said before in these columns, Japan is constant in her efforts to dominate the Pacific ocean. The European war has given her an opportunity of which she has not been slow to take advantage and the land of Nippon stands today the great power in the ocean at the doors of the United States. For some time it was doubtful if Japan could ever acquire that position; now there is no doubt. Unless something very much like a miracle happens it will be a difficult thing to get back the position our merchant marine is being compelled to abandon just at present.

When the Pacific Mail Steamship company gave notice that it would abandon its trans-Pacific service and withdraw five palatial liners from the Pacific ocean on November 2, it practically gave Japan carte blanche for the Pacific trade. Japan has been looking for some such opportunity for a long time.

To that end the government of Nippon has heavily subsidized the Nippon Yusen Kwaisha (Japan Mail Steamship company) and given it and other Japanese lines every encouragement. That made every American steamship company on the Pacific ocean strain every nerve to keep pace with the Oriental rivals. It was difficult enough to do so; but in order to accomplish the mere feat of existing on the ocean, the American steamship companies were forced to employ Asiatics on their ships and make other not very agreeable economies.

Now comes in the La Follette seamen's law, which stipulates that American trans-Pacific steamships must carry crews that understand the language in which commands are given and must understand them all and be able to respond to them at once. As the American ships carry Asiatic crews, they are unable to comply with that regulation. It has been found impossible to teach Asiatics sufficient of the English language to comply in time with the La Follette law. The consequence is that to be within the law the vessels must carry American crews and from a financial standpoint that is impossible.

It is intimated that the liners Manchuria and Mongolia, 27,000 tons each; the Korea and Siberia, 18,000 tons each, and the China, 10,200 tons, will be withdrawn. These vessels are worth $15,000,000 and they may be sold to some of the belligerent powers indirectly and thus pass out of American control forever. After the Mongolia has completed her voyage to the Orient there will be no ship on the Pacific ocean except the United States war vessels flying the American flag.

It is stated that 134,000 tons of American shipping will retire from business on or before November 4, when the new bill goes into effect. That will be the destruction of 92 per cent of American-Pacific steamship tonnage.

There is a chance, however, that even the present congress may repeal this obnoxious law. The cruel object lesson that the American steamship companies have been compelled to furnish should, one would think, convince even the dullest that the legislation that has brought about this result should be repealed.

WOMEN IN WAR WORK

After the war is over it looks as though it would be impossible for British statesmen to do otherwise than invite the women of the kingdom to take part with them in the administration of the realm, giving them the franchise they have sought in vain so long. The British have now experienced the value of women in almost every branch of human endeavor. The Women's Volunteer Reserve has been providing a trained and efficient body of women whose services can be offered to the state at any time if necessary.

Women have come forward all over the kingdom to every manner of work formerly done by the men who are fighting in the field. The organization mentioned undertook to train women in drill, first aid to the wounded, nursing, telegraphy, camp cooking, sanitation, signalling and various other branches of activity.

These women after training exhibit remarkable capacity in discipline and co-operation. They have acted as orderlies at several big military hospitals and have also helped to get a new military hospital ready. They have done important work in connection with the canteens at Woolwich arsenal. In fact, there seems to be no limit to the scope of their activity.

It is inconceivable that this large body of intelligent women which has so unselfishly and nobly dropped all other considerations and stepped into the gap left by the calling of the men to the colors should be relegated to any position of inferiority in the political and social administration of the land to which they are giving their services.

That everyone from Premier Asquith down realizes that women can no longer be relegated to the background in the affairs of the nation is daily becoming manifest. Just what will be the proposal made to them when the duties imposed by the war come to an end, cannot be foreseen, but it is certain that no British statesman will be insensate enough to refuse to discuss the question of woman suffrage in the coming days.

According to computations made by the French war ministry, the losses sustained by the combatants in Europe amount to 14,398,000. This total consists of 5,290,000 killed, 6,478,000 wounded and 2,630,000 prisoners. In former wars the number of wounded to dead has been in the proportion of from four and five to one. In this latest war the two classes are almost equal. Since the compilation above referred to there have been additional serious losses on all sides. The French figures only include up to May 31.

It seems almost incredible that such a war could have broken out in the midst of large international movements for the establishment of universal peace. Those who are to blame for the awful exploitation of human life may yet find that they have to pay the reckoning. That the nations should prepare against war seems to be an obvious lesson.

The old schoolhouse has been moved to the northwest corner of the school grounds, where it will serve for temporary quarters during the construction of the new building.

Mr. L. A. Potter of Mayfield avenue is enjoying a visit from his father and other relatives from Calexico, Imperial valley. Mrs. L. A. Potter is still in Indiana, where she is visiting her relatives.

Miss Ruth Farrell, who was principal of our schools last year, has accepted a similar position in the West Covina schools. This is a step higher in her work and her many friends here are extending congratulations.

The branch of the county circulating library has a very liberal patronage. Mrs. Belle Miller is librarian and Mrs. A. M. Schütz is assistant. The work is purely a labor of love, as there is no remuneration. Each lady takes charge alternately.

The Goss Water company, whose line extends the length of Briggs avenue, is busy making connections and further improvements near the reservoir at the canyon will soon be made, substituting a pipeline for the now open channel.

That the La Crescenta hotel is a favorite place is shown by the register, from which we note the following guests: Miss C. Roberts, a teacher of Los Angeles, for a month's vacation; Mr. G. W. Houser, Los Angeles, makes a six weeks' stay; Miss Piper, a Cleveland (Ohio) teacher, an indefinite visit, and Mr. and Mrs. Wethern of Los Angeles, while a party of seven from St. Louis were guests last Friday while seeing the sights of the valley by auto.

Mrs. Cayse, who recently purchased the handsome F. T. Scott property on Michigan avenue, is making extensive improvements and changes in the house, both inside and out, adding another bathroom, a linen closet and a breakfast room and changing the dining-room. This place, with its already beautiful grounds and location, will be one of the show places of La Crescenta.

Forty peaches to the lug box. That's what we found at the J. L. Hauber packing house when we made a business call there Monday. The peaches were of the Orange Cling variety and were as good as they looked. Mr. Hauber has an exceptionally fine fruit ranch and his load, which was being prepared for market, consisted of some of the largest Satsuma plums we ever saw, besides nectarines and a variety of peaches especially adapted to canning, and which contained not the slightest trace of acid.

The elegant new home of Mrs. Helen Eaton on Michigan avenue, just opposite the La Crescenta hotel, is rapidly nearing completion and will be one of the finest in the valley. It is of true colonial style, with eleven rooms and two baths, while in the basement are rooms for the servants, store and furnace rooms, and screen porch-fitted for laundry work. The interior finish is white enamel throughout, with the exception of the artistic stairway to the second floor, which is mahogany and oak, and hardwood floors throughout. A most attractive feature is the spacious porch in the rear of the first floor and balconies from all openings on the second floor, which afford an unsurpassed view of the valley spread out before you and the mountains standing guard, yet through the Verdugo opening on fair days can be seen the ocean and Catalina island.

A. Anderson of Glendale is the contractor in charge and the work speaks volumes for his ability. The painting is being done by J. S. Erwin of La Crescenta and it is gratifying to know that we have such an excellent workman in our midst. On its completion the house will be occupied by Mrs. Eaton and her daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. W. Cahoon, and will be one of the striking beauty spots of the community.

NOTICE OF APPEAL

Public notice is hereby given that the Board of Trustees of the City of Glendale did at its meeting on the 2nd day of August, 1915, fix the time and place for the hearing of the appeals to said Board against the diagram and assessment for the construction of a bridge on Opechee Way and for the grading of a channel in the Verdugo Canon Wash, on Monday evening at 8:15 P. M., August 9th, 1915, in the Council Chamber at the City Hall, Glendale. Said appeals offer objections to the acceptance of said work on the grounds of faulty workmanship, that work is not upon publicly owned property or right-of-way, that it is of benefit to whole city, that all needed rights-of-way are not secured, and that the diagram is erroneous.

J. C. SHERER,
City Clerk of the City of Glendale.

PERSONALS

L. A. Heacock and wife are visiting the San Diego fair this week.

Elder E. E. Francis and wife and son, Donald, go to San Jacinto today to spend a part of the pastor's vacation with Joseph Guidinger and wife.

Mrs. E. C. Frank, Eagle Rock road, was a guest at the field day entertainment given at Inglewood Wednesday by the ladies of the Los Angeles Wednesday Morning club.

Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Jones, 1543 West Ninth street, have returned to Glendale after spending a very pleasant vacation at Balboa island. They report that the fishing at that popular resort was all that could be desired. They caught a large quantity of fish.

Miss Irene Jones, 1543 West Ninth street, has returned home after having spent ten days with her cousin, at Boyle Heights, Los Angeles. In some manner Miss Jones got her foot poisoned while on her vacation. She is now unable to walk and is confined to the house.

Mr. and Mrs. P. A. C. Moore and Mrs. Smart, president of the local W. C. T. U., motored to Burbank on Wednesday, where Mrs. Smart delivered an address on the "World's W. C. T. U. Missionary Work" before the Burbank union and other women's societies.

Mrs. Charles Grist, 210 West Colorado street, will entertain the local W. C. T. U. tomorrow (Friday) afternoon, August 6, at 2:30. Mrs. A. M. Brooks will read a paper on "Scientific Temperance in Schools," and there will be the usual study in parliamentary law and Bible reading.

Miss Alice Frank, Eagle Rock road, was one of the entertainers at a luncheon given in the Egan dramatic school to Mr. Egan by his dramatic class. Miss Frank has been assigned one of the principal characters in the well-known play, "The Lion and the Mouse," a scene from which will be given at the entertainment Thursday, August 12, in the Little theater of the Egan dramatic school. Scenes from other plays will also be given.

Miss Alice McCoy entertained with a slumber party at her home, 127 East Third street, Tuesday evening, complimentary to Miss Dorothy Lee, who leaves shortly for San Francisco, where she will spend several weeks visiting. Early Wednesday morning Miss McCoy, the charming honoree, and guests motored to Griffith park, where they prepared and enjoyed a most appetizing breakfast. Guests whom Miss McCoy invited to thus honor Miss Lee were Misses Frances Payne, Esther Sinclair, Leota Snyder, Lillian Leppleman and Pauline Hamilton.

TRUSTEE WILLIAMS WEDS

City trustee, George E. Williams was quietly married Tuesday evening to Mrs. Blanche Vorhies Martin at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred McIntyre, 321 Cedar St. by the Rev. C. Irving Mills, D. D. The wedding was a very quiet affair, only the immediate relatives of the bride and bridegroom being present. Although the affair had been kept secret until the last minute it still leaked out and several of Mr. Williams' brother councilmen accompanied by the Glendale municipal band called to congratulate him immediately after the marriage. The band also performed an appropriate serenade. The happy pair are spending their honeymoon at one of the beaches and will be at home at 310 Cedar street in about three weeks.

TO MEET Y. M. C. A. TEAM

Superintendent Lehman is anxious that every member of the Union high school playground team shall be present, Saturday, at the high school at 12:30 p. m. The team is to meet the strong players of the Los Angeles Y. M. C. A. on that date at 2 p. m. on the association's ground at Stevenson avenue. It is most desirable that the whole Glendale team make the trip at the same time. Any of the boys interested in the team who have autos can render most acceptable and valuable service by assisting in transporting the team to the Stephenson avenue grounds. The struggle between the rival teams, Saturday promises to be one of the most hotly contested of the season. The Y. M. C. A. has been showing great science this summer. Each of the following members of the team is requested to be at the high school promptly at 12:30, Saturday: Kolts, Dewar, Baker, Gabaig, Budway, Fisher, Morse, Van, Coole, Phillips, Crandall.

TRANSFER OF BUSINESS

For five years, J. A. Newton and E. R. Naudain have worked together building up the business of the Superior Electric company, 541 West Broadway. Mr. Naudain has now sold out his interest to Mr. Newton who will henceforth assume the sole management of the business. Mr. Newton expects to make his business even more progressive than it had been in the past. Electricity is becoming every day more popular in all household activities. Electric range, cooking devices, washing machines and vacuum cleaners are features in all advanced housekeeping. The Newton Electric company will always be in the field with the latest devices of this nature and Mr. Newton will give his personal attention to every detail.

LA CANADA

Mrs. Brooker of Pasadena was a guest at the T. B. Hegeman home for a few days during the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Brown, formerly residents of La Canada, but now of Pasadena, spent Saturday evening and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Seright.

Rev. Mr. Tall of Long Beach occupied the pulpit at the Congregational church Sunday morning and pleased his audience with an excellent sermon.

Mr. C. B. Woodward of Hollywood, formerly an old resident of La Canada, spent Saturday in La Canada visiting his brother-in-law, J. W. Stultz.

Mrs. J. P. Johnson entertained Friday in honor of her house guest, Mrs. Alkire. The guests spent the afternoon under the beautiful pines that surround the Johnson home.

Miss Blanche Lyons returned from Iowa last Friday, where she made an extended visit with her sister and other relatives. Her mother remained for a still longer visit.

Mrs. A. Cramer, who with her husband now occupies the R. L. Curtis property on Michigan avenue, attended the meetings of the great German Saengerfest in Los Angeles from Thursday to Monday.

According to the books of Ralph G. Moses, who read the same last Saturday afternoon, 970,700 cubic feet of water passed through the big meter of the La Canada Water company's reservoir in July.

There has been much complaint in times past that La Canada is a dry valley, but the water companies have made so many improvements that there is an abundance of water to supply a much larger population than at present resides in the valley.

The item in our last issue in regard to Mr. I. H. Nyby and the ex-Lieut.-Gov. Wallace ranch was not quite as explicit as it should have been. Mr. Nyby has been in charge there for the past six years and is still in charge, with the only difference that he and his family are now occupying their own pretty bungalow on Palm drive, which for a time they had left vacant while living on the ranch.

Mrs. R. A. Hills, who owns a tract on Verdugo boulevard opposite Home-wood, returned to Los Angeles Monday after a two weeks' visit with her daughter, Mrs. F. D. Lanterman. Mrs. Hills is intending to build a home on her property this coming winter.

The meeting of the Parent-Teacher association, which was to have been held with Mrs. Penfield this afternoon, has been postponed until next week, Friday afternoon, August 13. The same cordial invitation is still extended to all, whether members of the association or not, to attend and enjoy a social afternoon.

It is suggested that L. A. Dutour might take a few lessons in driving an automobile from Mrs. A. A. Lester to an advantage, as Mrs. Lester still continues to miss the telephone poles very nicely, which Mr. Dutour failed to do at the Anderson-Green garage last Monday. For further particulars see the rear end of the Dutour car.

Joe Bonzo, who has been working on the new McNaughton residence, is taking a few days' enforced "lay-off" caused by stepping on a nail, which pierced through the sole of his shoe and at least half way through his foot. Prompt medical attention was given and no serious results are feared.

La Canada now rejoices in two jitney bus lines, both of which commenced operation Monday. Mr. W. H. Hood has started a line between La Canada and Los Angeles, leaving here at 8 a. m. and returning leaving Los Angeles at 6 p. m. Our photographer, B. D. Jackson, conducts the other line, which makes an early trip to Pasadena and return and then to Montrose and return. Then in the evening two like trips are made. Mr. Jackson informs us that he has not quite perfected his schedule as to time, but will soon be able to announce the exact time for each trip. These lines will serve to put La Canada in closer touch with other communities and deserves a liberal patronage.

Mr. Freeman B. Mills, secretary and general manager of the Woodbridge Grape Growers' association at Woodbridge, Cal., with his wife and daughter, Ralphine, spent a day visiting Mr. F. D. Lanterman and family at "Homewood," La Canada, early this week. Mr. Mills is a very successful grape grower, owning several hundred acres of table grape vineyards, the crop from which, with that from the thousands of acres of like vineyards under the control of his association, is shipped to the eastern market. A trainload of thirty to forty cars daily is the average shipment during the season, that lasts from August to December. The unshippable grapes go to the association's wine presses, the wine output being about four million gallons per year. Mr. Mills has shown his own faith in the future of the industry by planting this season more than one hundred acres to tokay cuttings.

About thirty young people from Los Angeles, friends of Miss Harriet and Lula Lanterman, enjoyed a day last week, at the beautiful home of those young ladies, "Homewood," at La Canada. An outdoor luncheon was served under the splendid live oaks. The swimming pool and tennis court afforded enjoyment for a large number of the guests and cards and games entertained until the lights were turned on in the dancing pavilion under the trees. Dancing and music kept all occupied until a late hour. A moonlight auto ride back to Los Angeles finished the day. Among those present from Los Angeles were: Mrs. Coutts, Misses Susie and Alice Coutts, Mrs. Verden, Miss Rose Verden, Messrs. Paul Scott,

BURBANK

E. C. Howe of Imperial transacted business in Burbank Saturday.

The Burbank 500 club was entertained in Glendale on Wednesday.

Burbank needs a modern hotel located on the San Fernando Road.

O. C. Lane of the Ford garage spent a couple of days up at his ranch the first of the week.

John Luttge and family enjoyed an automobile ride to Sierra Madre and vicinity Sunday.

Charlie Lovejoy, proprietor of the L. & W. garage has gone to Bear Valley for a few days for a much needed rest.

Jack Anderson, the contractor, has begun work on a four room bungalow on Palm avenue near Third street for Ralph Lovejoy.

A. Bley, Jr. gives the opening dance in the new Burbank block tonight, Friday, August 6. A fine time is anticipated.

Mrs. E. B. Fowler and baby and her father, R. Eustice, left Sunday for a month's outing at Hueneme Beach, Ventura county.

Master Edward Potter returned on Monday from his Riverside trip and reports a splendid time, although he acknowledges "that it was rather hot there."

Mr. and Mrs. Markley of Palm avenue leave today via the Santa Fe route for Ohio where they will make their future home with some relatives.

Miss Millicent Virden of Tropico was in Burbank for a short time on Wednesday enroute to her home from Santa Paula, where she had participated in a chautauqua.

Miss Claire Glenn visited in Los Angeles Tuesday and Wednesday, being one of a merry house party of former U. S. C. girls who were entertained by Mrs. George Armstrong.

Mr. J. J. Peters is the new S. P. railway signal man at Burbank and he and his mother are now pleasantly located in the Coe bungalow home near the hotel.

Fred Reed of Tropico will move here about the first of September, in order that his daughter, Miss Reed who will teach in our schools the coming year may be more conveniently located.

The brick walls of the new Walker block are nearly completed, the ceiling joists are in place and the structure will soon be ready for the roof. H. E. Betz and his gang of brick layers do not waste any time on the job as the work proves.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Emery, who have been visiting friends and relatives here for the past three weeks, have gone to El Paso, Texas, where they will visit a son, after which they will return to their home at Springfield, Mo.

J. H. Flower of Glendale is spending most of his time in Burbank this week supervising operations in connection with the building of his new business block at the corner of Orange avenue and the San Fernando Road.

L. J. Mulvey, the genial proprietor of the Burbank pharmacy, is driving a fine new six cylinder Haynes auto this week and is treating his friends to a spin around town. The car is a beauty and our friend is to be congratulated on his purchase.

Word has been received of the death of W. E. Standcliff at Phoenix, Arizona, as the result of an operation for tumor. The remains were expected Thursday and burial is to be made in the Burbank cemetery. A more complete obituary will be published in our next issue.

The Burbank cannery is a busy place just now. A glance into the rooms Wednesday showed everybody as busy as the traditional bee. Mr. Faxon took time to inform us that they are pulling about a ton a day at present. That is just that much clear profit to Burbank.

Mrs. Maude Ludlow of 345 Angeleno avenue most delightfully entertained a few of their friends Wednesday evening, during which time an elaborate five course luncheon was served to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Story, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Dufur, Mr. and Mrs. Paxson and Miss Gladys and Mr. and Mrs. Davison.

H. A. Church, president of the First National Bank of Burbank accompanied by his wife and other members of the family are taking an outing through the Yosemite valley which will be completed in a visit to the San Francisco exposition. They expect to be about four weeks on the trip.

F. F. Scribner made a fishing trip to Santa Monica last week and came back with such a big string of fish that he went again Thursday of this week. Mr. Gibson and F. A. Hoberg went along to be shown so we may expect some tall fish stories on their return, but perhaps the biggest will get away.

Mrs. Jenkins of the Burbank hotel is making a specialty of Sunday dinners, and that her actions are appreciated is shown by her constantly increasing patronage. She had 23 Burbank guests at dinner Sunday.

Mrs. Reese is now at home to her friends in her elegant new house situated at the corner of Palm avenue and Seventh street. The house is of distinctively eastern architecture and makes quite a contrast to its bungalow neighbors.

H. W. Osborn, the wallpaper and paint dealer of Burbank, says that it is remarkable the number of new buildings erected the past year, and prospects are even brighter for this fall. In addition to this a large number of the older buildings are being improved and painted. His policy of high quality and low prices is a strong factor in the good work.

One of Burbank's enterprising young business men is M. S. McNutt, who purchased the Ferguson confectionery on the San Fernando road about the middle of last June. Since taking possession of the store Mr. McNutt has had the interior redecorated and added materially to the stock. This confectionery is exceptionally well known throughout the San Fernando valley for the quality of its ice cream and candy and merits the generous patronage of Burbank's citizens.

Ground was broken Monday for the new Flower block, mention of which is made in another portion of this paper. The carpenter work is done under the personal inspection of Mr. Flower by workmen under Mr. Harry Flower who is foreman in charge. The building is 40x70 consisting of two stores and basement, with offices and apartments upstairs. The front is finished with gray brick and marble with prism and plate glass.

WIN JUNIOR DOUBLES

After a very hard and strenuously contested struggle, Robert Garrett and Roland Brown won the first prize in the tennis match. This was the Junior doubles series and it brought out much harder playing than did the Senior doubles. Garrett and Brown had to fight every inch of the way and earned their trophy by the hardest kind of play.

ence Pate, Hilda Dowdy, Wattermar Weaver, Charles Olsen, Tom Blanchard, James McMan and Paul Van De Grift. Mrs. Weaver and Mrs. Olsen made excellent chaperones.

Miss Martha Harrington, who has been the summer guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Cooper, left Monday for her home in Massachusetts. Miss Harrington is taking Miss Helen Cooper with her as far as Denver, from whence they will both return to their homes. After making extended stop-overs at San Francisco, Portland, Salt Lake City and in Montana, Miss Cooper expects to be with us again in about six weeks.

Miss Gladys Granger, La Canada's star athlete, did herself and our valley credit in the Virginia tennis tournament last week. Miss Granger entered the handicap and open singles. Although losing in actual score, Miss Granger put up an excellent game and has been highly praised by the tennis "sharks."

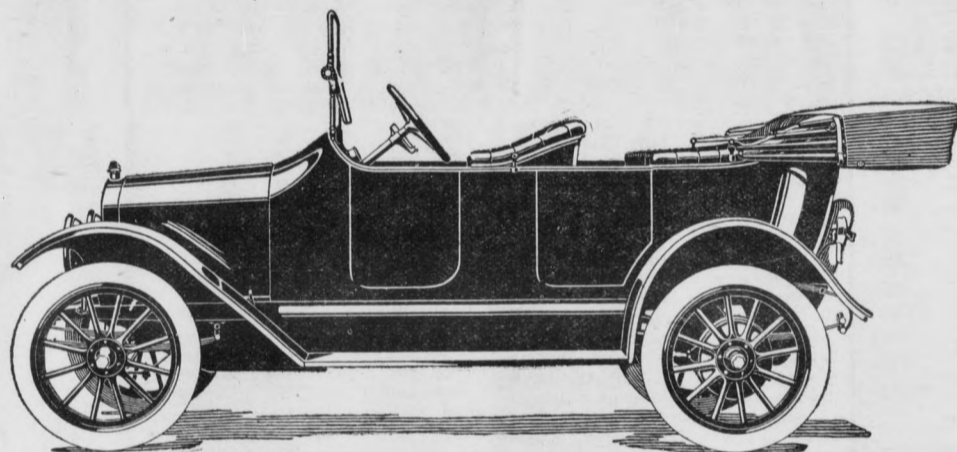

Those of the valley who are visiting the San Francisco fair this week are: Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Anderson and daughter Elsa, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Cooper and the Misses Rowena and Lulu Green. The party left on Sunday via the President and will return Saturday on the Governor.
